

I agree with, and support, the FISTS organization's petition.
Amateur radio is about training people to communicate under any and all conditions. A working knowledge of Morse code is essential to meet this goal.